GAWDA Foundation Scholarship

Introduction

The GAWDA Foundation Scholarship was created in 2011 for the purpose of providing support to recipients during their formal education. The amount available varies from year to year.

The GAWDA Foundation Scholarship is available to children and employees of active GAWDA member companies. The goal of the GAWDA Foundation is to promote education within the Gases and Welding Industry. Therefore, the Trustees make the decisions regarding use and distribution of the funds available.

Eligibility

The GAWDA Scholarship will be awarded to children and employees of active GAWDA member companies. All applicants must meet the following eligibility requirements (the requirements listed are just for your consideration). The selection committee should review these sample requirements and include additional requirements you feel will establish your desired applicant pool.

1. Applicant must be a minimum of eighteen years of age.
2. Applicant must have at least a high school diploma.
3. Applicant must have a “2.5” overall grade point average if pursuing a degree program.
4. Applicant must provide a letter of reference indicating how they will use their related education.
5. Student may be enrolled full time or part time.
6. For students with a financial need, Proof of financial need is required to qualify for special consideration.
See section labeled Consideration for “Financial Need”

Applicant must submit all required application information

8. Applicant must be a citizen or legal resident of the United States and plan to attend an academic institution located within the United States.
9. Applicants may reapply. Persons who have received this award may reapply for future consideration.
10. Persons may not be considered if the GAWDA company membership lapses.

The Foundation does not discriminate by age, race, color, national origin, disability, creed, or gender.

2020 Awards - This year there are 15 awards of $2,000 for selected GAWDA recipients.

All awards are for tuition fees only and will be paid in one of two ways;

- For students that qualify for “financial need” consideration, fees will be paid directly to the academic institution by the Foundation.
- All other awards may be paid to the recipient only after proof of successful course completion and receipt of payment made to the academic institution.
